EMPLOYMENT

2026-	Interim Dean of the Honors College and Director of the Virginia B. Ball Center for Creative Inquiry
2024-2026	Associate Dean, College and Sciences and Humanities, Ball State University
2019-	Professor of Sociology, Ball State University
2013-2019	Associate Professor of Sociology, Ball State University
2008-2013	Assistant Professor of Sociology, Ball State University

LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE

2026-	Interim Dean, Honors College, Ball State University
2026-	Interim Director, Virginia B. Ball Center for Creative Inquiry, Ball State University

Key Accomplishments

Recruitment and Retention

- Revised admission criteria for the Honors College to remove inequities for students who submit standardized test scores (vs. test-optional students) and create a more inclusive admissions process.

Management

- Had a staff member trained as a schedule specialist, enabling the college to have its own schedule specialist and providing the ability to make schedule adjustments quickly and easily as needed.

2024-2026 Associate Dean, College and Sciences and Humanities, Ball State University

Key Accomplishments

Innovation and Programming

- Co-PI on a grant from the Mellon Foundation to develop a paid internship program for humanities majors integrate NACE Career Readiness Competencies throughout the humanities curricula. Currently serving as Co-Program Director to build and lead the Humanities in Action program. We launch the program in Fall 2026 with our first pilot cohort of students who have been placed in internships with nonprofit community partners.
- Led efforts to create a STEM Education Center to house the science education programs, as well as address the STEM teacher shortage, increase access to STEM education, and provide professional development to STEM teachers
- Created a new Course-based Undergraduate Student Experiences (CUREs) program within the college
- Led efforts to create a Math Success Center to assist students who need additional math support in courses across the curriculum that rely on students' understanding of basic math skills. We are partnering with a small group of instructors across colleges to pilot the Center in Fall 2026.

Communication and Strategic Planning

- Co-led efforts to create a cohesive identity and messaging for the college (pursue your passion, find your purpose, and empower your career), and integrated this into student success and recruiting efforts
- Led efforts to cohesively brand and promote secondary education programs within the college, including highlighting these programs at admissions and recruitment efforts
- Revitalized the CSH Dean's Student Advisory Council, empowering them to set and work toward goals, revise nomination processes and establish bylaws, and better support students and the work of the college

Management

- Recruited and managed a new Program Manager position for Humanities in Action to oversee the internship program and maintain relationships with nonprofit partners
- Managed faculty personnel issues related to teaching and students, including developing and managing remediation plans

Faculty and Student Success

- Co-organized college summer bridge program
- Led efforts to identify courses with high DFW rates and worked with faculty to improve student success in these courses
- Coordinated the CSH Pedagogy Fellows program to foster and promote a culture of good pedagogy throughout the college
- Organized and led the college's inclusive excellence committee

- Revised scholarship processes to be accessible to more students
- Led efforts to revise the First Year Seminar to be more specific to the college, better acclimate CSH students to both university and academic life in college, and provide applied experiences
- Oversight of awards and scholarships within CSH

Recruitment and Retention

- Developed recruitment plan to increase the number of actuarial science majors, which involved outreach to local math teachers and developing materials and programming for high school students. This contributed to a 30% increase in the number of first-year actuarial science majors in Fall 2026 compared to the previous year.
- Improved infrastructure for the B/MD Program to streamline the application process, improve communication, and increase collaborations between CSH, Honors College, and IU School of Medicine-Muncie
- Collaborated to reimagine admissions and recruitment events to improve visitors' experiences and provide more cohesive, consistent messaging about the opportunities offered within CSH
- Co-developed the Gateway Retention and Intervention Plan (GRIP) to provide additional support to students in gateway major courses to improve student success and retention

2022- Board of Directors Member, Council on Contemporary Families
2025- Treasurer, Council on Contemporary Families

Key Accomplishments

- As Treasurer, I am responsible for reviewing the annual budget and making recommendations to the organization about financial matters
- As Treasurer, I work collectively with the Executive Director on budgetary issues
- Worked collaboratively to inform the work of the organization
- Piloted a workshop that is now used as the framework for the CCF biennial workshop

2020-2023 Co-Editor, Community, Work & Family

Key Accomplishments

- Streamlined intake process, decisions about desk rejections, and assigning manuscript to editorial team
- Developed internal system to track status of all manuscripts
- These processes contributed to a decrease in days from submission to first decision
- Increase in CiteScore throughout time as Co-Editor

- Co-led efforts with editorial team to obtain impact factor for journal
- Increase in submissions during time as Co-Editor

2022-2025 Executive Board Member, Work and Family Researchers Network

Key Accomplishments

- Led efforts to redesign organizational website
- Organized virtual events as Co-Chair of Virtual Conference Series
- Co-coordinated efforts to develop WFRN YouTube channel
